

Davies, J. Clarence

1918

April 11th, 1918.

Mr. J. Clarence Davies,
14 East 81st Street,
New York.

Dear Mr..Davies:-

I am very glad to have received your card signifying that we may present your name for election as an associate at the next meeting of the Council. This will probably take place during the next two or three weeks, and I will communicate their action at that time. If in the meantime you should visit the Museum it would give me pleasure to welcome you.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
